

Madhatters, Inc.

P.O. Box 127

Wadena, MN 56482

News Release

For Immediate Release

Contact: Dee Polman

deepolman@charter.net

218-371-7992

Madhatters honors three area high school seniors for receiving scholarships

Wadena, Minnesota, (June 19, 2017) – The Madhatters, Inc. recognized Coleman Klimek of Motley, MN, Cade Bestland of Staples, MN, and Leah Roberts of New York Mills, MN, as accomplished young people who applied for the Fine Arts Award this academic year. Each of these three candidates received a $500 scholarship to continue their educations in the Arts, beginning in the fall this academic year.

Coleman Klimek will attend Central Lakes College in Brainerd, MN and has plans to major in theater and marketing. Cade Bestland will attend Concordia College in Moorhead, MN and has plans to become a music teacher and minor in theatre. Leah Roberts will attend Concordia College in Moorhead, MN and has plans to major in English education to become a high school English teacher.

The Madhatters, Inc. is a non-profit 501c(3) organization that supports the arts and theatrical programming in our region, including theater productions, Camp Madhatter, and scholarships. Visit www.madhattersinc.org for more information on their mission.

###